MATTER RAISED WITH PERMISSION

The Mode of Raising Issues in the House - Contd.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I have some names here. I have been told by the hon. Chairman that we can continue discussing till 2.30 what we were discussing before lunch. So, I call Shri J. Chitharanjan.

SHRI J. CHITHARANJAN : Madam Deputy Chairman, I thank you for giving me an opportunity to speak on this issue. I can very well appreciate and understand the hurt feelings of Dr. Raja Ramanna. We have been discussing, on several occasions, the code of conduct for Members, what should be the approach of the Treasury Benches, what should be the approach of the Leader of the House; we have been discussing these things again and again. At the time of the Golden Jubilee celebrations of our Republic, we had a debate on the code of conduct. Even then, these disturbances have been taking place. Recently, on November 25th, again, a
